

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

as recorded by The Collingsworth Family on "A True Family Christmas"

From the Prism Music collection HERE WITH US

Arranged and Orchestrated by Bradley Knight

70 Rubato ♩ = 82

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It begins with a tempo marking of 70 and a rubato instruction. The first system (measures 1-3) features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, both in a key of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The second system (measures 4-7) includes a crescendo leading to a fortissimo (f) dynamic and a tempo change to 'a tempo'. The third system (measures 8-11) features a decrescendo leading to a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic and a tempo change to 'Slower' with a new tempo marking of 76. The score concludes with a piano (p) dynamic and a final chord.

NARRATOR: Merry Christmas! I'd like to share with you what I believe is the greatest story ever told...the story of The First Christmas.

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It begins with a tempo marking of 12. The first system (measures 1-4) features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, both in a key of three sharps. The second system (measures 5-8) includes a decrescendo leading to a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic and a tempo change to 'a tempo'. The score concludes with a final chord.

Now, imagine yourself over 2,000 years ago, standing on a hillside near a little town in Judea. Look over in the distance.
You'll see a man slowly leading a donkey down the road.

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It begins with a tempo marking of 16. The first system (measures 1-4) features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, both in a key of three sharps. The second system (measures 5-8) includes a decrescendo leading to a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic and a tempo change to 'a tempo'. The score concludes with a final chord.

His name is Joseph. Sitting on the back of the donkey is a young virgin lady named Mary.
They've been on a very long journey, and they're headed for that little village you see.

NARRATOR: After hearing the angel's announcement, you hear the shepherds ask the angel where to find the Christ Child.

The angel tells them to go to the manger, where they will find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes.
As the shepherds leave, the skies are filled with a multitude of angels, saying,
