UPCOMING ASBURY EVENTS

All Are Welcome - This Sunday!

The Christmas season is a time when the juxtaposition of the sacred and secular feels sometimes blatantly opposed, and sometimes quite blurred. The word "sacred" points to something dedicated as "holy" and "set apart." This year, inspired by Dr. Marcia McFee's Worship Design Studio, you are invited to a spiritual journey of seeing ALL things pregnant with the Holy. What could our experience of the Advent and Christmas season be like if we lived it imagining that everything is reflecting the sacred?

You can read more about it here.

Eat me – drink me – would you??

After an event in Fellowship Hall, we often find food left out, either on tables in the hall or in the kitchen. Sometimes there is a note attached reading "help yourself" but often there is not. People assume that "somebody" will eat it; after all, they know where it came from, what it was purchased or made for, and how fresh it is. But anyone else coming into the kitchen knows none of these things. Ask yourself, would you eat food left lying around that you know nothing about?

Please do not leave food in the kitchen because "somebody" will use it. All food left in the kitchen should be labelled with the date it was left, who left it, and what event it is for. There are labels and tape in the drawer by the handwashing sink just for this purpose. If you do have leftovers that you plan to leave for another group to use, please make sure you have contacted that group, they know the food is there, and it is labelled!

As a follow on, the refrigerator and freezer will be cleaned out the week of Dec 22. All food past its expiration will be tossed. Any food that is not commonly used for Asbury events (salad dressings, condiments, syrup) will also be tossed unless it has an owner's name on it.

Food Is Needed 🤝

Tri-Valley Haven Food Pantry is working hard to support families in need this season, and resources are sparse. We can make a difference together!

Bring donations to the church narthex on Sunday, or to the church office through December 7th. Every contribution, large or small, helps provide comfort and nourishment to neighbors in our community.

Consider donating the following types of foods:

• Proteins: Canned meats (like tuna, chicken, and ham), vegetarian sources (like beans and lentils), and shelf-stable proteins.

- Grains: Whole grains (like rice, pasta, and quinoa), brown rice, and whole wheat products.
- Section 2 Canned Goods: Canned soups, stews, and vegetables.
- Tooking Staples: Oils, pasta sauces, salsas, and baking staples (like flour and sugar).
- b Snacks: Granola bars, dried fruits, nuts, and healthy snacks.

Men's Study Group

We are a men's small group that meets online every Thursday at 7:45 to 8:45 am. We have decided to wait until after Thanksgiving, until Thursday December 4, 2025, to start a new study.

This time, instead of studying the contents of the Bible, we will be learning the story of how the Bible came to be and how the way it is used and interpreted has evolved over the last 3,000 years. We will watch a 30-minute video each day (No homework!), followed by discussion.

We have mix of people, some who just want to listen that day, coupled with group members who make insightful comments and questions that day. We now have room for more participants, so we invite you to consider us.

Please contact Art Molvik to express interest in this course, or in something a little different. (We have studied Christianity from a variety of viewpoints and have changed our format and meeting time a few times.)

Art can be reached at (925) 989-9529 or at arthur.molvik@gmail.com.
