

Seeing Through the Fog

How Do I Know God's Purpose for My Life?

2 Corinthians 5:17-6:2 | November 23, 2025

Our purpose is to accept our calling to ministry.

Our purpose is to accept our calling as Christ's ambassadors.

Our purpose is to accept our calling as God's co-workers.

How do I know God's purpose for my life? God's purpose for my life is to accept His love and to share His love.

A few things about purpose...

- » Purpose isn't discovered; it's received. (Micah 6:8)
- » Purpose isn't mysterious; it's missional.
- » Purpose isn't exclusive; it's for everyone in Christ.

QUESTIONS TO REFLECT ON: Where is God trying to use me? What does He need me to do? Who is He needing me to reach?

STUDY QUESTIONS

GETTING STARTED:

What did you want to be when you grew up as a child? Are you doing that now? What changed along the way? Why do you think “finding life’s purpose” is such a big pursuit for people?

A DEEPER DIVE:

Read 1 Corinthians 5:17-6:2

- Understanding Identity Before Purpose
  - Why is it important to understand our identity in Christ before we can discover our purpose? How does being a “new creation” (2 Corinthians 5:17) change the way we approach questions about purpose?
  - Share a time when you felt pressure to figure out “what you’re supposed to do” with your life. How did that pressure affect your relationship with God?
- Living Out God’s Purpose
  - What does it mean to have “the ministry of reconciliation” (2 Corinthians 5:18)? How is this different from what we typically think of as ministry?
  - Paul says we are “Christ’s ambassadors” (v. 20). What does it look like practically to be an ambassador for Christ in your workplace, neighborhood, or family?
  - Read 2 Corinthians 5:21 together. How does understanding what Jesus did for us on the cross motivate us to share this message with others?
  - Discuss the statement: “Purpose isn’t mysterious; it’s missional.” Where has God already positioned you to live on mission? (Think about your current relationships, responsibilities, and circumstances.)
  - Reflect on these questions: Where is God trying to use me? What does He need me to do? Who is He needing me to reach?

THIS WEEK’S APPLICATION:

Identify Your Mission Field: Write down three specific places or relationships where God has positioned you. Pray daily this week for opportunities to be Christ’s ambassador in those spaces.
