

Luke 10:25-37

ICEBREAKER QUESTION: What's something you try to avoid at all costs? Examples - giving blood, mayonnaise, puking, etc.

What's something you've avoided but later regretted?

What groups of people tend to be at odds with each other? And what's the impact of that?

In the parable, Jesus talks about loving your neighbor. In your context, who would you define as your neighbor?

Can you think of a time when someone helped you in a way that reminded you of the Good Samaritan? How did it make you feel, and what did you learn from that experience?

What are some practical ways we can follow the example of the Good Samaritan in our daily lives, especially as students?