The Affirmation of Commitment

In light of all these responsibilities and opportunities, we desire to see you deeply involved in the life of this church. These responsibilities and opportunities are summarized in the Affirmation of Commitment. Please spend a moment contemplating each of these points as you evaluate whether or not you would like to join this church.

When you go through the Right Hand of Fellowship, you will stand before the church, and one of the elders will read these off, and you will respond with “I will.”

With the aid of the Holy Spirit:

- Will you be diligent to exercise self-control so that your lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness?
- Will you faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all you can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as you seek to exercise your spiritual gifts in faithful service?
- Will you consistently contribute, as a good steward of God’s blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers you, so that our local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue?
- Will you teach biblical truth to your family and acquaintances, as God gives you opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved?
- Will you always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love?
- Will you commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, your brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior?
