

LIFE GROUP

Resources 101

Welcome!

My name is Mason Williams, Communications director at Mims Baptist. I have 20+ years experience in the social/design/audio/visual production industry. Today, I'd love to help you and your Life Group find ways to stay connected outside of the church walls.

Purpose

In this class, we'll explore the various methods and platforms that Mims Life Groups can connect and communicate with each other.

Stay Connected

A variety of technology-related and online solutions available!

What are the ways we can connect?

How do you connect?

Share Life with Each Other!

01.

Prayer Requests

Prayer requests or concerns, praise reports or general requests that we all encounter in day-to-day life.

02.

Life Events

Birthdays, weddings, anniversaries, birth announcements, milestones, holiday greetings, etc.

03.

News

A group newsletter, Life Group news, Church news, etc.

04.

Lesson Correspondence

Talk about past or upcoming lessons.
Create dialog about group teachings and sessions.

05.

Video Messages

Conversational group video messages or direct messages from the Life Group teacher(s).

06.

Inspiration

Daily/ weekly scripture inspirations, Bible verses, devotionals or Christian quotes.

Common Solutions

Social

Creating a group page is one of the most common and effective methods to share life with each other.

Facebook

Texting

Group texting can be a great way to converse, share images/media and stay up to date together.

GroupMe

Video Messaging

An organic way to communicate in a conversational format, plus it's fun!
...seriously, it's really fun!

Marco Polo

Email

A great method to send announcements, studies, or even weekly/monthly group newsletters.

SendinBlue

Although there are many different platforms and applications available, we will focus on these four standard solutions for church small groups
