Small Group Study 2026

A disciple... follows Jesus, is changed by Jesus, and is committed to the mission of Jesus. (Matthew 4:19)

GROUPS VISION: Groups @ RCC seek to be a safe relational environment, where we all strive to become like Jesus together.

SMALL GROUP GUIDELINES

THIS IS A SAFE GROUP

Confidentiality is key—at is said in the group stays in the group. Be aware how you are affecting the environment with your words, actions, and non-verbal communication. This needs to be a place where people feel comfortable opening up and sharing.

NO CROSSTALK

Be considerate of others as they are sharing. No side conversations, checking phones, responding to texts or emails, etc.

LISTEN

Let's value one another by listening to what is being shared. Allow a pause after someone shares to allow them to finish and others to consider what was said. Eye contact and body posture play key roles in creating a positive or negative group environment.

NO RESCUING OR FIXING

We are not here to fix each other; Jesus does that part. Avoid the tendency to rescue when someone is struggling to get the words out or shares a struggle or conviction.

USE "I" STATEMENTS

It's easy to talk about the issues of other or respond with "we," "us," or "the church," but for us to grow as disciples and build relationships, we want to use "I" statements.

DON'T OVER-TALK

We want to create time for all members of the group to participate in the discussion. Be careful not to always be the first responder or regularly give long responses.

FIGHT FOR RELATIONSHIP

It's not if conflict or hurt feelings will happen, but when. We commit to fight for relationship with each other. Go to the person and share your struggle or seek wise advice if you are not sure how to handle the conflict.

BASIC BIBLE STUDY METHOD

1. Pray
2. Read the passage 2-3 times (use different translations).
3. Write out simple outline of the passage.

Following the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus, the disciples were in a place of anticipation. Although they had questions about the future, Jesus commanded them to wait. He promised them the Holy Spirit and that by His presence, the disciples would be witnesses to the risen Savior in all of life. Luke, who also penned the gospel by his name, records what happened as Jesus departed and left His ministry in the hands of His disciples. What follows, then, is the beginning of an extraordinary movement by ordinary people.

Tell the story: Acts 1:1-11 [Have someone tell the story]

Rebuild the story [Group members tell the story together based on what they remember]

1. What do we learn about God from this passage?
2. What do we learn about Man/Us from this passage?
3. What is God saying to you specifically through this passage as it pertains to your life, marriage, family, and work?
4. What is God leading you to do?

Other Questions specific to this passage:

1. Have you ever desired a "convincing proof" when following God? What was it?
2. What is God's plan for the advancement of His gospel?

Following His death, burial, and resurrection, Jesus remained with His disciples for forty days. These forty days were marked by convincing proofs that He was alive. His followers were convinced that Jesus had conquered death and pondered their next move. However, as Jesus ascended to heaven and promised the Holy Spirit, He commanded His disciples to stay in Jerusalem. It was here that they considered a new addition.

In this passage, we see a harvest of those who responded to the Gospel delivered by Peter. They were immediately baptized and added to the church. Fast forwarding from this scene, the early church not only devoted themselves to the apostles teaching, but they also devoted themselves to one another. The church began to grow in the wisdom and knowledge of Christ so much that it shaped how they viewed one another. As a result of their devotion, the Lord continued to add to the church those who are being saved.

Paul, Silas, and Timothy continued on the second missionary journey. In Thessalonica, Paul met in the synagogue for three weeks sharing the gospel. Some Jews and Greeks believed, while some Jews gathered a mob to oppose Paul. The believers sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. Paul later traveled to Athens where he was invited to speak at Mars Hill.

Paul's sermon at Mars Hill appealed to the Greek philosophers by interacting with their thoughts in respectful ways. Its main subject was the sin of idolatry that cleared the way for a full statement of the gospel. Some, mocked Paul as he preached, others wanted to hear more about it later. Some actually believed and joined him.
