

REFINED FIRE by

Trusting the Refiner's Hand

You'll Come Out
as Gold

God's refining fire is not the end; it's the path to Christlike maturity. This week we celebrate how He sees our finish, forms His image in us, and turns past pain into powerful testimony for His glory through every trial.

Discussion Questions

READ: Job 23:10; 2 Corinthians 3:18

- What does it mean to 'come forth as gold'?
- What hinders you from believing you'll "come forth as gold"?
- How have past trials changed you?
- What does God see in your future?
- How can you reflect the image of Christ this week?
- Where have you seen God "finish what He started" in you?
- What part of Christ's character is the Spirit forming right now?
- How has a past trial become a testimony that helps others?

Living It Out

Ask the Holy Spirit to highlight one person who needs your testimony. Share it, pray with them, and speak hope over their current fire. This week do the following:

- Schedule & Share: Block 15 minutes over the next 2 days to write your two-line testimony and send it (text/voice note/in-person) to the person the Spirit highlighted.
- Scripture & Prayer: Declare Job 23:10 or 2 Corinthians 3:18 daily, using a breath prayer: “Jesus, form Your image in me.”
- Act of Mercy: Do one tangible encouragement for that person (note, meal, coffee, help). Pray with them and check in midweek.
