Stand in Truth

Week 2

LASLOMASCC.COM

29 Willow Rd. Royal Oaks, CA 95076

Every spiritual battle begins with deception. Satan attacks truth first because everything depends on it. As we continue and go deeper from Sunday's message, we see that God calls us to live truthfully from the inside out—where honesty with Him brings freedom and spiritual stability.

Discussion Questions

Truth and the Battle

- Read Genesis 3:4–5. What lie did the enemy use to deceive Eve?
- Why do you think Satan still targets truth first today?
- How can believing a small lie lead to bigger spiritual consequences?

Truth That Holds Everything Together

- Read Ephesians 6:14. Why do you think Paul compares truth to a belt?
- How does truth stabilize your identity and calling?
- Psalm 51:6 says God desires truth “in the inward parts.” What does that mean practically?

Truth That Frees

- Read John 8:32. What kind of freedom do you think Jesus is talking about?

- How can hidden compromise weaken spiritual authority?
- Why is confession such a powerful step toward healing and freedom?

Truth That Is Practiced

- Read Proverbs 12:22. What does this verse tell us about God's heart?
- What is "spiritual drift," and how does it happen?
- Why does obedience keep us close to God?
- How do private choices affect public faith?

Living It Out

Truth isn't just something we know—it's something we live. This week, allow God's truth to secure your heart and daily walk by:

- Asking God to reveal any areas where compromise may have crept in.
- Writing down one truth from Scripture you need to actively live out this week.
- Practicing honesty with God in prayer—nothing hidden, nothing rushed.
- Choose one daily act of obedience that aligns your life with God's truth
