

The Lord's Table

5-Day Devotional - 9.7.25

Day 1

The Power of Remembrance

Reading: Exodus 12:1–14

Devotional:

As we reflect on the Passover story, we're reminded of God's faithfulness in delivering His people. Just as the Israelites were instructed to commemorate this event, we too are called to remember Christ's sacrifice through communion. Today, consider how you can make remembrance a more meaningful part of your spiritual life. How might regularly "remembering" God's work in your life strengthen your faith and deepen your relationship with Him?

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, help me to pause and remember all You have done in my life. Remind me of Your faithfulness—not just in the past, but in the present moments I overlook. Teach me to honor You with a heart that reflects often and deeply on Your grace. May my remembrance spark renewed trust in You today.

Day 2

The Lord's Table

Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23–26

Devotional:

Paul reminds us that partaking in communion is a proclamation of our faith. It's a visible symbol of our invisible belief. As you go about your day, consider how your actions and choices proclaim your faith to others. Are there areas where your "visible confession" could be stronger? Ask God to help you align your daily life with the faith you profess at His table.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, I want my life to clearly reflect my faith in You. Let my actions speak louder than my words. Help me to live in a way that honors You—not just at the communion table, but in every conversation, decision, and interaction today. Shape my life into a visible testimony of Your grace.

Day 3

Jesus — The Lamb at the Table

Reading: John 1:29–34

Devotional:

John the Baptist proclaimed Jesus as "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." Unlike the Passover lambs that were sacrificed year after year, Jesus became the ultimate sacrifice once and for all. Reflect on the magnitude of this truth. How does understanding Jesus as both the sacrificial Lamb and the host at the communion table deepen your appreciation for His love and grace?

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, thank You for being the Lamb who gave everything for me. I can never fully comprehend the cost of Your sacrifice, but I receive it with gratitude and awe. Draw me closer to Your heart, and let my love for You grow deeper as I reflect on all You gave to redeem me.

Day 4

Healing at the Table

Reading: Isaiah 53:4–5

Devotional:

The transcription mentions that there's "healing at the table." Isaiah prophesied about the healing that would come through Christ's suffering. As you approach the communion table, remember that it's not just about remembering past events, but also about receiving present grace and healing. What areas of your life need Christ's healing touch today? Bring these before Him in prayer, trusting in the power of His sacrifice.

Prayer Prompt:

Healer, I come before You with the broken places of my life—physically, emotionally, spiritually. You bore my pain so I wouldn't have to carry it alone. Touch the parts of me that are weary, wounded, or sick, and speak healing over them. I trust You to restore what is hurting and bring peace where there's been turmoil.

Day 5

From Savior to Lord

Reading: Romans 10:9–13

Devotional:

The message emphasized the importance of accepting Jesus not just as Savior, but as Lord of our lives. Salvation is the beginning, but lordship is the ongoing journey of faith. Today, examine your heart. Are there areas of your life where you've accepted Jesus as Savior but not fully as Lord? What would it look like to surrender those areas to His lordship? Ask for the Holy Spirit's help in making Jesus both Savior and Lord in every aspect of your life.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, I've called You Savior, but I want to live with You as Lord. I surrender the parts of my heart I've tried to keep in my control. Help me let go of my agenda and submit to Yours. Lead me in obedience and trust, even when it's uncomfortable. I want every part of my life to come under Your rule.
