Deut. 6:6 And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. 7 Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up.

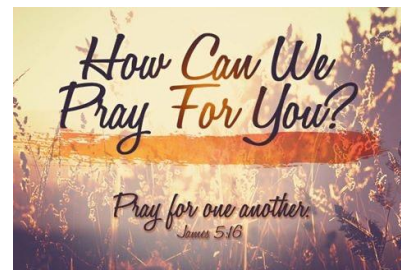

By Ryan Frank—one of the leading experts in Children's ministry today:

In a culture saturated with entertainment, it's easy to assume that keeping kids engaged in church means keeping them constantly amused. But kids don't need flashy lights or endless games to encounter Jesus—they need discipleship. They need leaders and mentors who will walk with them, open Scripture with them, answer their questions, and pray over them. Fun can be a tool, but faith is the goal. The heart of children's ministry is not about filling time; it's about forming hearts. What we plant in a child's heart today can take root and bear fruit for a lifetime.

Because children are so open to the gospel, this window of influence is one of the most strategic in all of ministry. Studies consistently show that the majority of people who choose to follow Jesus do so before the age of 13. That means children's ministry isn't just a support program—it's frontline missions. Every Bible story taught, every prayer whispered, every conversation had in a small group or hallway matters deeply. When we recognize this spiritual receptivity in children and prioritize intentional discipleship, we don't just grow our ministries—we grow the Church.

Help grow the church.

We are looking for 2 more helpers in the nursery to rock babies and 2 more helpers in Creation Station to help pass out snacks and help with crafts. You would only be scheduled once a month or less. Please see an Amanda or Lauren Perreault to help with the nursery or Linda Grubbs, Amy Ludwig or Faith Facemier to help with Creation Station.

♥ Keep Addy Larocca in your prayers. Addy is the young lady who was baptized a couple of weeks ago. Addy's dad passed away this past Sunday.

♥ Nancy Hammen is in hospice after a fall and Bill is being placed in memory care. Cards can be sent to their son Doug's address: Doug Hammen, 210 Winter Frost, Cibolo TX 78108.

♥ Mike Ludwigs's dad Jim, is home, but cancer is taking a toll. Please keep the family in prayer.

♥ Tamarickia Bloomfield was in the hospital but is now at a friend's house. See the meal train link.

♥ Jim and Barb Thompson - keep them in prayer.

♥ Deb Rusnak's Brother-in-law, Greg Beebe was diagnosed with stage 4 liver and pancreatic cancer. He is in the hospital in Pittsburg.

Please pray for the family, it was very sudden.

♥ Walt Jourdan is still battling with his eyes. He continues to receive shots in them to slow down the macular degeneration and glaucoma. Walt is also dealing with a torn rotator cuff. Betty is still struggling with some major heart issues.

Young At Heart Outing

We are planning a trip to the William McKinley Presidential Library and Planetarium on Sept. 9th. We will meet at the church at 10:00, arrange ride sharing and leave at 10:15 for the Museum.

The price is $15.00 per person for seniors and includes the guided tour and Planetarium show. It takes about 2 hours, then we will go on to the Hartville Kitchen for lunch.

Moses and Aaron Meet with Pharaoh

Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "The God of Israel says: 'Let My people go, so that they may hold a festival to Me in the desert.'" Pharaoh said, "No. You're stopping them from working."

When they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting to meet them, and said, "May God judge you!
You have made us stink before Pharaoh!"

Moses prayed, "O Lord, why have You brought trouble upon this people?"

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of My mighty hand he will drive them out of Egypt."
