

Carolyn Mae (Brooks) Blosser, 90, of Goshen died peacefully in her home on June 5.

On April 10, 1960 she married Don Blosser and together they had five children, Lois Blosser, Goshen, John Blosser, Joanna, SC, Kathy (Mark) Plank, Syracuse, Sandra Blosser, Hamburg, Germany, and Miriam (Winston) Anderson, Portland, OR.

Carolyn graduated from Goshen College and was a very supportive partner in pastoral ministry at Freeport, IL and Akron, PA.

In 1976, the family moved to the East Neuk of Fife, Scotland, where Don was in PhD studies. Carolyn supported the family by operating a sewing business out of their home.

When they returned to Goshen in 1979, Carolyn became the secretary for the Goshen College Music Department.

She loved music, singing in the church choir and the Goshen Community Chorale. She played piano and the small organ in their home, and was also a better-than-average golfer.

She will be remembered for her quiet, solid faith, hosting of church members and a wide range of friends in their home, and her prize-winning, homemade cherry pies. She is survived by her husband of 64 years; their five children; and seven grandchildren, Margaret, Cameron, Josh, Joel, Jacob, Scarlett and Eli.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, July 20 at 11:00 a.m. at College Mennonite Church, Goshen.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Goshen Community Chorale.
