General Updates

Celebration Center Updates: The floor extension in front of the choir is nearly completed as of this writing. A major thank you to the many volunteers who gave of their time, energy, and talents in helping with the construction as well as to staff members Eric Nance, Heather DeShazo, and Matt Schinske for their extra efforts in construction, running wires, and more. Additionally a new remote camera will soon be in place attached to the lower ceiling on the east side of the room. This will provide a better view of the choir and praise team. It is our hope that these two updates will enhance the worship experience of both those who join with us in person and remotely as well as expand upon our music capabilities.

Upcoming Special Services: Commitment Sunday, October 26th; All Saints Sunday, November 2nd; Veterans Day Celebration, November 9th.

Kyle's Schedule: These things do seem to come in waves, but I want to acknowledge that I will have officiated 4 funerals on behalf of Church of the Servant in the month of October. Two were members and two are for family members of those in our church family. When I learn of a relative of one of our members being in the hospital here in OKC, I offer to visit if they do not have pastoral support. In both of these situations, that visit was meaningful enough that are church member (or their family) requested I officiate the service when their loved one eventually passed. I believe this is a small way that I can be in ministry with the larger community beyond our church, but also want to acknowledge the strain this places on my time and availability. Nothing to be concerned about at this time, but something I will continue to monitor should it impact my other responsibilities.
