Prayers And Praises

- ~The opportunities to share our faith with others so that 1 MORE will be in heaven.
- ~How God is changing our priorities in order to advance his kingdom with power.
- ~The Promise of Heaven: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:13-14).

Today in the Chapel

With an invitation from the Women's Ministry, Liz Kroll, founder of the Sheboygan County Food Bank, is going to make a short presentation following this morning's service in the Chapel. She will be explaining the role of the Food Bank in Sheboygan County and share about the other missions that have evolved from the Food Bank, including The Warming Shelter that is open nightly November through March and the Community Café that is open week days for lunch. Liz is going to explain the many volunteer opportunities that are available and she is going to challenge us to consider ways we can get involved. Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40)

Meal Ministry Thank You & Help Needed

Thank you to everyone who supported our November 1 Freezer Meal Workshop! We prepared 124 meals, honey-cinnamon butter, and packaged rolls/biscuits in under two hours, with another 20 made this past week. Please use these freezer meals to bless anyone facing recovery or hardship. We're gearing up for a busy meal season and need volunteers to help with our senior care packages and coordination/delivery of meals and meal trains. Interested? Contact Ashley Setzer at 920-980-4852.

Coming Back—Laura's Story

A five-week DVD series on Laura's story of surrender, will be offered during the Sunday School hour. This series is open to all, and will meet in the Matthew Room. If you have any questions, please contact Jane VanMaaren.
