

Intro to Biblical Counseling: Connecting Biblical Truth in Practical Ways

Lesson 3: God and His Word

How we think about God and His Word directly and radically affects how we approach and engage in biblical counseling.

I. There is Hope: It is found in God and His Word

- A. Our hope is in God Himself
- B. True hope vs. false Hope
- C. A certain hope
- D. How to inspire hope

II. Biblical Counseling: What are we talking about?

III. Our Biblical Mandate and Foundation

- A. We have a biblical obligation to each other
- B. We need biblical counseling because of the nature of sin

IV. The Scripture is sufficient to help us solve all of the non-physical challenges of life

Discussion and Application Questions

- Have you ever felt hopeless? Is there hope to be found in even the worst trials?
- How would you define biblical counseling?
- Why do we do biblical counseling?
- Is the Bible sufficient for the task of Biblical Counseling? Why or why not?