CONNECT. GROW. SERVE. MULTIPLY.

THE ESSENTIAL TRIAD

1 THESSALONIANS 1:2-3

A triad can simply be defined as three connected things. This week the apostle Paul will walk us through an essential triad of behaviors or characteristics that ought to mark the life of a genuine Christ-follower.

The fact is, if you were dead in your trespasses and sins as Ephesians 2 says we all were, and you were made alive through faith in Jesus Christ, that resurrection from spiritual death to spiritual life has to show up in your life in some way. If Jesus has saved you, He has changed you and is changing you still.

The question is this, how are works of faith, labors of love, and steadfast hope evidencing themselves in your life right now?

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 1-11-26

CONNECT

Paul did not spend a long time with the Thessalonians and yet they made a significant impact on him. With that said, is there someone from your life that you did not spend a long time with, but who made a big impact on you? If so, who were they and what impact did they have on you?

GROW

- What stood out to you the most this week from the service, text, or message and why?
- Gratitude is always a choice. What can make gratitude difficult and what can you give thanks for right now?
- Paul speaks of "works of faith, labors of love, and steadfastness of hope" as characteristics that ought to mark a Christian's life. Practically speaking, how would you recognize these things? What other characteristics should you see in a professing Christian?
- When you look back at your own conversion, what do you remember the Holy Spirit changing in you first? What does He seem to want to change in you now?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to demonstrate gratitude to God and others? How can your Life Group help you with this?
