MASTERCLASS ROMANS

501 - Chapters 12-16

TAKE STOCK

ROMANS 15:17-21

You are going to die. That's a sobering and inescapable part of life in a sin-ruined world. Everything born eventually dies. That doesn't mean life has no meaning nor does it mean life doesn't have its pleasures.

In this week's text the apostle Paul is taking stock of his 10 years of church planting ministry, and he finds a deep satisfaction in His work for Christ even as he always anticipated the next church plant in the next city in the next country.

Paul understood that the greatest travesty in this life isn't death. It's a failure to actually live before you die. When was the last time you similarly took stock of your life and the life that is still before you? There's no time like now.

We will have a special election during our Semi-Annual Business Meeting on November 9th. You must be a voting member of the church in good standing to submit a nominee.

Nomination forms can be found at the Welcome Center and the Side Entrance by the Fellowship Hall, and must be returned to the church by October 22nd.

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 10-19-25

CONNECT

Whose funeral stands out to you as the “best funeral” you’ve attended and what made it the “best funeral”? Alternatively, if you were to write your own eulogy, what would you want to be remembered for and why?

GROW

- What part of this week's service, text, or message stood out the most to you and why?
- Pastor Doug showed a list of things that he has learned about living from spending time with the dying. You were encouraged to fill in the tenth lesson. What is an additional lesson you've learned about living from death and dying?
- In Romans 15:17 Paul speaks of having a deep sense of satisfaction or pleasure in his ministry accomplishments because everything he did was Christ working through him. With that said, share a story of a time when you knew that God was working through you. How do you keep yourself from sinful pride in those circumstances?
- At this point in your life, how can you determine if you are making the best use of your time, talents, spiritual gifts, and energy? What factors do you need to consider to even define what “best use” means?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to determine or fulfill your God-given purpose in this life? How can your Life Group help you with this?
