Sunday March 31, 2024

The Glory of the Resurrection

1 Corinthians 15:1-20

The technical Gospel is defined as the death of Christ, according to the Scripture, and the resurrection of Christ, according to the Scripture. The Bible would say that these two essential and inseparable events, locked in history, are steeped in captivating and transforming glory.

This week over two billion people around the world will stop, gather, and celebrate the fact that Jesus has overcome death and risen from the grave.

The apostle Paul, our author this week, was once a violent opponent of Jesus and His Good News, but he had his life transformed by the risen Christ who is still changing lives today. We pray that you will be changed by the fact that the tomb is empty and Christ is risen indeed!

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 3-31-24

CONNECT

In this week's text the apostle Paul makes a point to emphasize the fact that the resurrection of Jesus was authenticated by a great many eyewitnesses. Have you ever been an eyewitness to something that you had to later give an account of? If so, what was that?

GROW

- What about this week's service, text, or message impacted you the most and why?
- It is evident that the Gospel was central to Paul's teaching. Why is the Gospel central to marriage, parenting, work, friendships, money, and every other part of life?
- What do you make of the fact that the apostles (except for John) all suffered terrible deaths, Paul – an enemy of Christ, became His greatest ambassador, and even Jesus's own brother James died for Him because they were all eyewitnesses to the resurrection?
- In your words, how would you explain the fact that Christianity rises and falls on the historical reality of the resurrection of Christ? How is the glory of God seen in the resurrection of Jesus from the dead?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to live in light of the resurrection and it's transforming effect on your life? How can your Life Group help you with this?
