THE POWER OF COMPASSION

NUMBERS 14:1-19

Human beings live in flesh. That means that we are all acquainted with weakness, fear, hunger, and pain. It's part and parcel of the inescapable human condition.

One would think that compassion, as necessary as it is, would be far more common than it is. Biblically speaking, compassion is deep with both meaning and impact.

Jesus is the best example of compassion in all of its expressions and, as Christ-followers, we are called to be compassionate toward one another.

If you're seeking to lead, serve, and influence others like Christ, at any level, compassion is essential. This week we will see the power of compassion to change a life.
