

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 11-9-25

CONNECT

Romans 16 is an example of the fact that people matter. With that said, who is someone from your childhood who made a significant impact on your life and how did they affect you?

GROW

- What part of this week's service, text, or message stood out the most to you and why?
- Romans 16 makes it clear that the apostle Paul obviously loved people and had many close relationships. What are the possible dangers of letting people get close to you? What are the possible blessings of forming deep and meaningful relationships with people?
- How would you explain the difference between attending a local church and being a part of a local church? What would you say to someone who said they had "given up" on local church attendance?
- Paul recognizes both men and women along with Jewish and Gentile Christians in our text. How can diversity be a strength in a local church. How can a body of believers maintain unity in their diversity?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to express or demonstrate your appreciation to someone who has made a significant difference in your life? How can your Life Group help you with this?
