

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 12-7-25

CONNECT

Isaiah 11:6-9 presents us with a view of creation at peace with itself. With that said, what one wild animal would you most want to have an up close and personal experience with (assuming it would be safe to do so) and why?

GROW

- What part of the service, text, or message stood out the most to you and why?
- What examples can you think of from the four Gospels of Jesus living out the characteristics listed in Isaiah 11:2-5? How do they shape the way you see and relate to Him now?
- Our world is marked by conflict. In what ways does salvation bring immediate peace to the believer and in what ways is peace a growing but ultimate thing? How should your answers impact your life today?
- Every Biblical prophecy is a promise, and the incarnation is proof that God keeps His promises. With that said, what Biblical promise do you find yourself hanging onto tightest right now and why?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to take hold of and walk in the peace of God that we have in Christ? How can your Life Group help you with this?
