

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 9-28-25

CONNECT

Spend some time introducing yourselves, if this is your first Life Group meeting of the new term. If you've already done that, share with the group your favorite way to support or encourage someone who is going through a hard time and why. Or how were you encouraged by others during a previous trial?

GROW

- What part of this week's service, text, or message stood out the most to you and why?
- In a culture as divided as our own, how do Paul's instructions concerning accommodating the conscience of others enable the Church to stand unique in the world? How would you distinguish between a Biblical commandment, a Biblical conviction, a conscience issue, and a preference and why do these categories matter?
- Paul, in Romans 15:4, says that the Old Testament ought to encourage and strengthen us. What examples from the Old Testament do you find especially encouraging and why?
- How can we, as a local church, be wise and welcoming when it comes to receiving guests and new members? Why are both qualities necessary in our contemporary circumstances?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to be more welcoming, hospitable, or encouraging to others? How can your Life Group help you with this?
