WELCOME

Thank you for choosing to worship at MPC today! What a gift it is to gather together, even as winter weather changes our plans! With even more snow expected throughout the day, many of us will be worshipping from the comfort of home and some on-site activities may be paused this week. We're grateful for your flexibility and grace and even more grateful that we can still worship together online.

No matter where you're joining us from today, we're thankful you're here, celebrating God's goodness with us and Following Jesus Together. Everyday we strive to Love People. Know Jesus. Live Transformed. We certainly all have that opportunity this weekend as we can truly BE the church and check on and help others that may be impacted by the storm. We love you church!
