SHE IS SALTY

"YOU ARE THE SALT OF THE EARTH"

MATTHEW 5:13

THIS NOTEBOOK BELONGS TO:

IF FOUND PLEASE CALL:

EVERY YEAR,

we gather as women from across all campuses to worship, laugh, cry, and remember who we are in Jesus. This year, we're stepping into a new calling to be salty. Not the kind of salty the world talks about, but the kind Jesus meant.

When He said, "You are the salt of the earth," He was reminding us that our lives are meant to preserve truth, add flavor to a broken world, and awaken people's thirst for God. Salt doesn't stay hidden. It changes everything it touches.

Our hope for you this weekend is simple: that you would bump into Jesus in a way that awakens something deep inside you — a renewed desire to live boldly, love freely, and bring the hope of Christ into every space you walk into.

YOU BELONG HERE.

TO: You!!

DATE: 1.30.26

Hey friend,

I don't know where you came from today... what season you're walking through, what you're carrying, or what you've been praying for... but I do know this: you are exactly where you're supposed to be.

Every time I stand in a room filled with women like you, I'm reminded that God is still writing stories of redemption and purpose. You are not too far gone. You are not too late. And you are not invisible to Him.

He sees you. He knows your name. And He's already been preparing this moment long before you even got here.

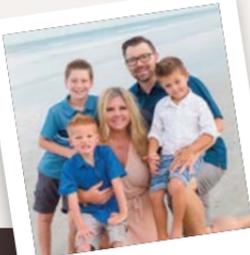

Our prayer for this weekend is that you would feel seen, known, and deeply loved by the One who made you. That as you worship, listen, laugh, and learn, you would sense His presence whispering, "This is for you."

Flatirons Women isn't just a ministry. It's a sisterhood. It's a movement of women who believe Jesus is worth following with our whole lives. We are women who are honest about our brokenness, who keep showing up anyway, and who want to help others find the freedom and hope we've found in Him. So, take a deep breath. You're safe here. Let God do what only He can do.

With so much love,

Carrie Kraft

(HEALING, WHOLENESS, AND SPIRITUAL DIRECTION)

BREAKOUT #1 - AUDITORIUM

BREAKOUT #2 - WEST END

SPEAKER: ALLY LEY

Life can feel messy, loud, and unpredictable, and sometimes our faith feels that way too. In this breakout, Ally Ley creates a safe and honest space to talk about what it really looks like to walk with Jesus through doubts, stress, unanswered prayers, and the parts of our stories we wish we could edit. Together you will explore the kind of theology that actually holds up in real life — practical, grounded, grace-filled, and rooted rooted in our God who meets us right where we are. Come ready for a hopeful, refreshing conversation on healing, spiritual direction, and the wholeness Jesus invites every woman into, even while life is still unfolding.

God's calling is not reserved for a select few — it is for every woman willing to say yes. In this breakout, you will explore how God has uniquely shaped your gifts, passions, and story for a purpose that goes far beyond your comfort zone. Together we will talk about what it means to live “salty” in a world that desperately needs the hope of Jesus, and how to be a woman who is not only called but sent into her home, workplace, community, and everyday spaces with courage and intention. Discover your next step, embrace the mission God has placed in you, and learn how to walk confidently into the greater story He is writing through your life.

SHE IS A FLATIRONS WOMAN

(WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE TO BE A FLATIRONS WOMAN)

BREAKOUT #1 & 2 - 3RD & 4TH GRADE ROOM

SPEAKERS: AMANDA BROWN & LOGAN AAL

This breakout is designed specifically for our community of women. At Flatirons, we unapologetically run after the hearts of men. That is a gift. But at times, it can leave women wondering where they fit. Together, we will talk honestly about what it looks like to be a Flatirons woman who lives bold and not in the shadows, who is healed and whole, and who embraces her role as a true helper in the way God designed. This is about confidently stepping into your God-given identity and purpose. We will explore the creation story, our church culture, and how to walk in strength and clarity as the women God intentionally placed here.

WHAT'S NEXT?

We don't want this weekend to be a one-time moment—we want it to spark a movement in your life. The best way to keep growing and stay connected is to take a next step with Flatirons Women. Whether you're looking for friendship, deeper discipleship, or a place to serve, there's something waiting for you.

STEP IN WITH COMMUNITY

"I DON'T EVEN LIKE WOMEN" WORKSHOP

We get it. Community can be complicated. And sadly, this is a phrase we hear often. This one-day workshop helps women break down barriers, rebuild trust, and discover what healthy, God-centered relationships with other women can look like. One of our main session speakers, Natalie Runion, will be back with us for this one-day workshop designed from her new book I Don't Even Like Women.

Join us at our Lafayette Campus on Saturday, February 28th. 9AM - 12PM.

CONNECT

A space for women to build community, study God's Word, and grow as Jesus followers together. Connect is our mid-size group that is onsite at all our campuses with childcare included. Whether you're brand new or have been around Flatirons for years, Connect is where real friendships and spiritual growth exist.

DISCIPLESHIP COHORTS

Ready to go deeper? Discipleship Cohorts are small, year-long groups that focus on growing your faith, studying Scripture, and being transformed through intentional community. It's where women are stretched, encouraged, and equipped to lead others.

MOMCO

Motherhood is hard, beautiful, and holy work — but you don't have to do it alone. MOMCO is a place for moms of all ages and stages to connect, laugh, and find encouragement from other women walking the same road.

Childcare available.
(Lafayette campus only)

FLATIRONS WOMEN LEADERS

We need leaders for Connect, Discipleship Cohorts, Groups and MOMCO for each campus. If you are ready to step into leadership... we need you!

A CLOSING PRAYER OVER YOU

Jesus, thank You for every woman here, for the story she carries, and for the way You have been pursuing her long before she ever stepped through these doors. Thank You for every moment this weekend where she felt seen, known, challenged, or comforted by You.

Lord, I pray You would seal every word You have whispered to her heart. Let truth take root. Let lies lose their power. Let shame fall away. Remind her that she is Your daughter. That she is chosen, loved, and held by a God who never lets go.

Make her salty. Make her bold. Awaken in her a fresh desire to live like You, love like You, and walk closely with You. Remind her that she is sent — into her home, her workplace, her friendships, her neighborhood — as a light in dark places and as a carrier of hope.

Strengthen her where she feels weak. Heal the places still tender. Restore what has been taken. Renew what feels dry. Surround her with women who speak life, build faith, and help her follow You with courage.

God, let her leave this weekend different... freer, braver, more grounded in Your Word, and more aware of Your presence in every part of her life. Make her a woman who stands firm, lives with purpose, and reflects Your goodness everywhere she goes.

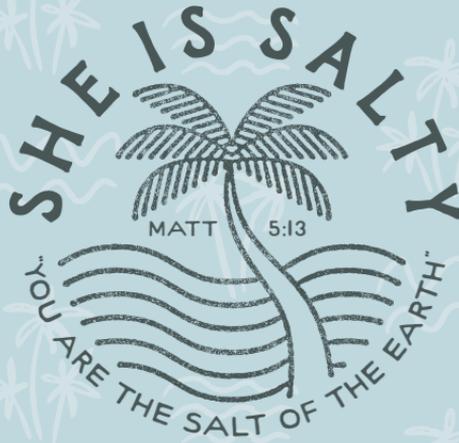

We entrust her to You, Lord. Do more in her than she can ask, imagine, hope, or dream.

AMEN
