

Hey DFMC Family,

We're continuing our Message in a Bottle series this Sunday with a timely and powerful message called "Peace in the Storm."

Remember when Jesus said these words? "Peace, I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives." (John 14:27) Pastor Eric Carlson, will be preaching an encouraging message reflecting upon Jesus' statement — and you won't want to miss it! In addition to serving as our Youth Pastor, Pastor Eric has many years of experience as a Hospice Chaplain, walking with people through life's hardest moments. This week, he'll share what he's learned about finding real peace when the waves of life feel overwhelming.

Come ready to be encouraged and reminded that God's peace isn't found in calm seas—it's found in His presence.

Join us on Sunday at 10:30 AM and invite a friend who could use a little peace in their life right now. We'll worship together, open God's Word, and discover what it means to rest in His unshakable peace.

P.S.  New Two-Week Class: FATHER WOUNDS
November 9 & 16 · 9:30–10:30 AM · Room 201

Many of us carry invisible scars from our relationships with our earthly fathers. This short class, FATHER WOUNDS, helps both men and women process those hurts and discover the healing love of our Heavenly Father.

You'll learn how to: Identify specific father wounds and their lasting effects, integrate biblical truth to better understand God as Father, and move toward healing, hope, freedom, and flourishing through forgiveness and restoration.

If you've ever struggled to see God as a loving Father — this class is for you. Come early, grab a coffee, and let's grow together.
