

Dear DFMC Family,

Christmas morning has passed. The songs have quieted. The decorations are starting to come down. And yet... the story isn't over.

This Sunday, we'll gather for a special post-Christmas message titled "After the Angels Left." We'll reflect on what happened after the shepherds left the manger, after the wonder faded, and ordinary life resumed. Because that's often where faith is truly formed.

Using Luke 2:15–20, we'll explore how God meets us not only in holy moments—but in the everyday routines we return to. The shepherds went back to the same fields... but they were changed. And so are we. This Sunday there will also be a Family Service, with children ages 6 and up joining us in the worship center as we worship together as one church family.

If you're traveling or unable to be with us in person, we invite you to watch and interact online at dfmchurch.org. Wherever you are, we'd love for you to be part of the experience.

Come worship with us this Sunday at 10:30 a.m.
Come as you are. Come expectant. Come ready to take a next step into the new year together.

We'd love to worship with you.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Shane Bengry
