THE WHITEHOUSE FAITH-BASED INITIATIVE

Congressman J.C. Watts nominated Dr. Roberta Jones as a Religious Community Liaison for the first-ever congressional White House faith-based Initiative. While working with Congressman J.C. Watts, she read an email establishing the Faith-based Office at the Small Business Administration. Their mandate was to partner with faith-based leaders to identify, train and fund aspiring entrepreneurs and small business owners to seek out the opportunities to be certified as a minority disadvantage business to participate in the minority set-aside programs that today are worth $230 billion.

SBA

On January 10, 2006, Dr. Roberta Jones Inc became certified in the SBA 8a Business Development Program. During her 9-year tenure, she developed “The Entrepreneurs Network (TEN)” a virtual training center for the purpose of identifying and training aspiring minority entrepreneurs on new business startups within the faith-based community.

Dr. Roberta Jones founded Dr. Roberta Jones Inc. on January 1, 2002. Our purpose/vision stayed the same “Who’s Helping the Pastors” but our mission was changed on January 10, 2006, when Dr. Roberta Jones Inc. was certified into the Small Business Administration 8(a) Business Development Program. Our mission is to identify, recruit and train entrepreneurs through our “Small Business Enterprise Series” – the “Word in Animation”.

The Entrepreneurs Network

The heart of “TheEnetwork.org” is ELM, the Entrepreneurs' Logic Model.

ELM is an educational tool that allows entrepreneurs to examine their creative idea to see if it has economic value.

ELM is a visual view of transitioning from a creative idea with economic value to a product or service.

ELM was built using faith, creativity, economics, leadership, and the SBAs Business Plan as the roadmap to success.
