Grace is a Beautiful Thing

Our first granddaughter entered this world early on Tuesday morning. Mom and baby are doing great and got to go home on Wednesday. She was greeted by her two big brothers who were so excited. Her oldest brother Judah (5 years old) told her, “You’re going to be a beautiful girl when you grow up”. And Jordan (3 years old) told his baby sister, “When you grow up as a kid we will love you”. If that doesn’t warm your heart you may need to check to make sure you have a pulse.

Our daughter Tori and her husband Ross choose the name Joanna Grace. The name Joanna means “God is gracious”. Tori told us that her full name means “grace upon grace”. I must admit that I had to go back to the book of Luke to remind myself who Joanna was in the bible. Joanna was the wife of Chuza who was the manager of Herod Antipas’ household estate. She was healed by Jesus, and along with some other women traveled with Jesus and His disciples from town to town supporting them from their own means. Joanna was also one of the women who were at the empty tomb early on Sunday morning. She was one of the women who first reported the empty tomb to the disciples. That means that she was one of the first people ever to share the message of the risen Savior!

We are blessed to have Joanna in our lives. Yes, I am talking about my granddaughter. But we are all blessed to have the grace of God extended to each of us. Now, more than ever, I am convinced that grace is a beautiful thing.

All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God. 2 Corinthians 4:15

Phillip
