From Pastor's Pen:

"...our great God and Savior Jesus Christ gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works." Titus 2:13b-14

My dear family in Christ,

I believe that the above words, given by God through St. Paul, are vitally important for us who have become infected with a watered down version of American Christianity. There are so many people who claim to be a Christian but have no interest in living like one. The incongruity of faith and life that so many of us display for the world to see actually causes the name of God to be defamed. Luther writes this in his explanation to the first petition of the Lord's Prayer: "God's name is kept holy when the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as children of God, also lead holy lives according to it...but anyone who teaches or lives contrary to God's Word profanes the name of God among us..."

Do not be deceived into thinking that because "God is love" that you can separate faith from a life of obedience and good works. St. James is very clear about this when he writes: "What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him?...Faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead... Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works." (James 2:14,17-18)

God did not only save us from something [sin, death & the devil's power], He saved us for something [godliness, abundant fruit-bearing life & Spirit driven purpose]. God actually had a goal in mind when He sent His Son to redeem us as stated by Luther in his explanation to the second article of the Apostles' Creed: "[He redeemed me] that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence and blessedness..."

We may be saved by faith alone, but true, saving faith is never alone. It always produces in us a zeal for good works that are pleasing to God. If you have been deceived into thinking that you can be a Christian and continue in a lifestyle that God condemns, you are dead wrong. If you think that it doesn't matter whether you attend worship or study God's Word, which is a clear violation of His expressed will for you, you are dead wrong. If you think that you can use all the things that God has given you only for yourself, and not for the Gospel or for caring for the needs of others, you are dead wrong. What I mean is, according to God's Word through James, you are "spiritually dead" wrong.

God has a plan and purpose for you. He has saved you so that you may do the good works that He had always wanted you to do. He has poured out the Holy Spirit upon you in baptism to empower you to live under Christ and serve Him in righteousness. I encourage you to repent of your abuse of His grace and the way you have wasted the gifts that He has given you. I direct you, in gratitude for the salvation and eternal life that Christ has purchased for you, to be zealous for good works. Through them God is glorified, His saving Word is made more attractive to those who need it and other people are served. Please, please, do not be a Christian in name only. Show your faith by what you do.

In closing I leave you these words from the hymn "Salvation unto Us Has Come"

*Faith clings to Jesus' cross alone and rests in Him unceasing
And by its fruits true faith is known, with love and hope increasing
For faith alone can justify;
Works serve our neighbor and supply the proof that faith is living.*

In Christ's love,

Pastor Umbarger

Vicar's View

Dear saints of St. John,

It is hard to believe that I've come to the end of my vicarage. There are probably many things I should say, but first of all I want to say thank you. Thank you for being so warm and welcoming to me throughout my time here. It feels like everyone at St. John's has played a part in making me feel at home in the Quad Cities and in the congregation. Thank you also for welcoming Kayla and helping her to feel at home here each time she came to visit; it made what could have been a difficult year apart that much easier for both of us. Thank you also for indulging my interest in obscure theological topics (bonus points to those who made it through my five-session study on ritual purity, it takes some patience to let me ramble for that long about why leprosy is actually really interesting)! Thank you especially to Pastor Umbarger for being a great supervisor. Thank you for sharing your experience, it has been so valuable to see a pastor who really knows his congregation at work. Thank you also for trusting me and giving me opportunities to step out of my comfort zone and take the lead on things like strategic planning, teaching Bible study, and even running a pastors' conference for the district! It has been a great experience and opportunity for growth. I would also like to offer some parting words of encouragement. This is a time of change and uncertainty in a lot of ways. The world around us seems to be changing rapidly, and things are changing here at St. John's too. In a few years, Pastor Umbarger will be retiring, and for the first time in quite a while, you won't find an introduction to a new vicar in this Informer. Uncertainty about the future can be scary. We just finished studying Ecclesiastes in Adult Bible Class on Sunday, and that book reminds us repeatedly that no one can know or control what will come in the future. But Jesus himself reminds us that the hairs of our heads are all numbered, and that nothing happens outside the control of our heavenly Father (Matt. 10:29-30). Whatever the future looks like, Jesus would not have us look at it with worry or fear. God is faithful, and he will supply you with everything you need to stay planted firm in faith to the end. Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today, and forever (Heb. 13:8).

I hope that I will have an opportunity to see you all again soon! But I've already pointed out the vanity of predicting the future, so even if that doesn't work out, I have faith in Jesus Christ that we will at the very least see one another at the resurrection when Christ makes all things new. What a day that will be!

In Christ,
Vicar Kyle Moellenhoff

Davenport, IA 52722

Thursday, August 3rd, 7:00pm

Dr. Robert Carter is one of the world's leading Christian researchers into the study of human genetics and how this relates to human biblical origins. The good news is that the Bible can really be trusted when it comes to such history and in particular its account of Creation as read in the book of Genesis. This presentation lasts about an hour using illustrated Power Point slides and is usually followed by an informal Q and A. Creation resources will be available before and after the meeting.

From the CID

What more could the disciples of Jesus have wanted or needed? For three revolutions around the sun, these men had witnessed the mighty miracles of the Christ. Jesus had spoken to them the powerful words of his “upper room” discourse in John 13–17. Each of them could give firsthand accounts of the resurrected Savior. Jesus breathed out the Holy Spirit upon them, giving them the power to forgive and retain sins (John 20:22–23). And Luke tells us that Jesus even opened their minds to understand the Scriptures! (Luke 24:45).

Surely, these men were ready to get going. Yet, even all of this was not enough. “Stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high” (Luke 24:49). When that day came, fulfilling Joel 2:28–29 and Isaiah 32:15, those disciples were made ready, by God’s grace and power. The same Spirit has been given to you in Holy Baptism. Comfort and peace in the forgiveness of sins as won by Jesus on the cross is yours, as is the power to share that Gospel with family, friends, and neighbors. “Clothed with power from on high.” That defines you forever through Baptism into Christ. There is nothing more you could want or need.

Pastor Jeff Caithamer

Living As Christian Citizens in the Here and Now

God our Creator instituted government to be a means by which He preserves and orders life among fallen human beings. Government belongs to His kingdom of power. The governmental realm is to be distinguished from that of the church. Governments are instituted not to save souls, but to uphold order and provide justice. God’s Word teaches that government is to reward the one who does good and to punish the evildoer (Romans 13:1-7; 1 Peter 2:13-17).

In the United States, Christians as citizens have many opportunities to do good in the governmental realm. Not only do individual Christian citizens pay taxes; we can also seek elected office and vote. We may participate in voluntary associations such as service clubs, civic improvement organizations, and political parties. We can let our views be known to our neighbors, government officials and others.

By applying moral principle to public and political issues, we make a crucial contribution to maintaining justice and freedom in our communities and in our country. This stands out as an important responsibility, one for Christian citizens to take soberly and prayerfully.

CID BOARD OF DIRECTORS REVIEW REPORT 05/23/23

Rev. Mark Eddy called the meeting to order. Rev. Mike Burdick finished our reading of 1 Peter. Minutes from the March 28th meeting were approved with corrections. Rev. Schuermann, the campus pastor at UniLu, highlighted recent years of especially young men being catechized and joining UniLu. He also gave an update on UniLu's partnership with the local pregnancy resource center to be ready for the 2023-2024 school year.

President Mohr reported that CID received 3 candidates, 2 vicars, and 1 deaconess from our seminaries. He joyfully anticipates the upcoming district installations and ordinations this summer. He asked for prayers for the upcoming Synodical Convention, floor committees, and delegates. Mrs. Chris Andersen reported for CEF and their services to many in our district. CEF's 18-month 3% investment offer is still available. CEF awarded 4 Ministry Outreach Grants in April. CID CEF representatives were able to meet for the first time since Covid with the other independent CEFs and LCEF in St. Louis. Mr. Trip Rodgers gave his reports on Congregational Life and Education. The District Accreditation Commission names were approved for the accreditation of our district schools. Rev. Dr. Schurb happily stated that Concordia Historical Institute has published Rediscovering The Issues, a book on the 1974 walkout, to be available this year. Lutheran Legacy Foundation has committed to providing matching funds to our 4 endowment funds that support CID campus ministries for the next 10 years or until a total of $500,000 has been raised. Dollars For Missions (DFM) continues to raise money for approved missions such as UniLu's 12-passenger van.

Financial Secretary, Mr. Jim Frazee voiced concern for the lack of congregational participation for DFM. Any congregation that is not participating or promoting DFM should speak with Rev. Schurb. CID has paid Synod for the upcoming LC-MS convention expenses. All should submit their congregational portion for this year's LC-MS convention. Cristo Rey was approved to improve their parking lot in need of repair. The work week for CID staff was approved and defined as 5 days with two days off each week. Redeemer, Peru has closed and is in process of faithfully selling their property and assets. It was approved that the monies for the dissolution of Redeemer's property and assets be received into CID General Fund. St. John, Buckley's and Bethlehem, Petersburg's updated constitutions were approved. The next CID Board of Directors meeting was set for September 26, 2023, 9:00 a.m.
