

REMEMBRANCE

One of my favorite songs is Make Me A Blessing. Refrain goes: Make me a blessing, make me a blessing, out of my life may Jesus shine; make me a blessing O Savior I pray, make me a blessing to someone today.

We recently remembered the life of Anita's mother, Wanita. That was her favorite song. She lived by the words of that song.

1. She brought her five children to church faithfully. (For which I am very glad.)
2. She gave gallons of blood during her life! What a blessing to so many for sure.
3. She learned to do sign language to sign for the deaf at church during class and worship. Blessing for them!
4. She would crochet countless blankets and hats for the children in hospital. A real comfort for them. She did this until her death.
5. The funeral meal served after her service was one she had helped with countless times. A blessing to other families.
6. I must add, she was a blessing to me. She was a good mother-in-law. I was fortunate!

I could go on. The point is, what about you and me? What will people remember about us? Have we lived a life of blessing to others? Is Jesus shining through us?

Our perfect example is Jesus, of course. Our life is blessed every day because of Jesus. We have salvation full and free. We have a future in heaven awaiting. We have the comfort in this life that he provides. Matthew 11:28-30. Psalm 23. He watches over our life daily. Thank you, Lord!

--In Him, Gary.
