

The Book of Revelation (Pt. 3)

5. We must conclude with the purpose of the Book of Revelation. Many falsely conclude that God is only giving us a description of world events. But this is not really the purpose.

The purpose of Revelation is to show that God is in charge of the whole course of history and the world's affairs. Consider: With all the mess in this world, have you ever thought, "Is anyone in charge?"

Enemies of God like, Islam, materialism, communism, humanism, evolutionism, and all the other --isms are getting worse. Who is in charge around here, we cry!

In answer, Revelation was written to boldly say, GOD IS IN CHARGE! Imagine the first Century Christians going through persecution. They needed a bit of encouragement for sure! Then they read the letter from John, saying God is in charge. John writes, to have hope, Look to Him!

The theme of Revelation is of course VICTORY. You and I are on the winning side because we on God's side. We are in His army! Only in His army is there hope!

"He who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be My son." Rev. 21:7.

--In Him, Gary.
