

How To Study The Bible

We finish our short study of 1 Corinthians 13. We have concluded so far that Paul is correcting some immature feelings within the Corinthian church. Some had a miraculous gift ability, and it went to their head, as we say today. Paul says, grow up and love instead.

Paul points out these miraculous gifts would cease. Indeed, they did in the first Century! The apostles (and those they laid hands on) died before the end of the first century.

Paul points out that what they (apostles) were teaching and writing would some day be put together. Like pieces in a puzzle. There some day be a whole picture. I.E., the Bible.

13:11.

The childish things are miraculous gifts. Paul tells them it is time to move on/ to grow up! For instance, those today who think they are speaking in tongues, they are not. Grow up! Paul would say to them. (Note: This verse cannot follow vs. 10 if the perfect is the second coming. For we would still be immature.)

Adult things are faith, hope and love.

13:12.

Blurred image for now. Temporary!

13:13.

Again, if perfect is the second coming, then this verse makes no sense. Will faith and hope be in eternity? No. Faith and hope remain after the gifts are gone. In heaven it is by sight!

The time for revelation was short. The apostles knew that. They knew they would soon die. And they knew a complete word was coming!

--In Him, Gary.
