

MY COUNTRY

One Night I thought of days gone by,
When men were men and girls were shy;
When school was started with a prayer,
God's spirit everywhere!

We walked to school without a fuss,
Through snow and sleet—there was no bus;
We took our lunch and liked it fine,
Sue traded sandwiches with mine.

Our teacher surely loved the flag,
Did not believe our zeal should lag;
Where God and country were involved,
To teach us right, she was resolved!

We sang "My country 'tis of thee,"
And thank our God for liberty;
We praised the Lord for those who died,
The Stars and Stripes displayed with pride.

The Word of God her desk adorned,
Nor was it by our teacher scorned;
Each day a portion she would read,
Our hearts in paths of truth to lead.

O God, I pray, with all my heart!
Grant us a fresh, forgiven heart!
Help us to go the Bible way,
Then night will turn, by Thee, to day.
