

ANGELS STUDY
(The good, the bad, and the ugly)

DEMONS or Daimon.

We said last week that the meaning of a word is determined when said and to whom said. What was the First century meaning of demon then?

Josephus (First Century historian) said: “demons, which are no other than the spirits of the wicked (dead), that enter into men that are live.” Philo: “the souls of dead men are called demons.”

Jesus used the term demon without any change or correction from the popular understanding in his day. Was he mis-informed?

Paul referred to this same understanding in Acts 16:16-18 and 1 Corinthians 10:20.

J W McGarvey (scholar), “In the Jewish usage of the term, it applied exclusively to the departed spirits of wicked men. This usage was adopted by Jesus and the apostles and consequently all that is said of demons in the NT agrees with it.”

The Lord's Power

Mark 1:24-26. Jesus had complete power over demons.

Demon possession brought: 1. Dumbness, Matthew 9:32-33; 2. Blindness, Matthew 12:22, 23; Deafness, Mark 9:25.

BUT: 1. Demons were addressed as intelligences. Who can speak to a disease? 2. Demons were expelled at once by Jesus. Instantly people were healed. The crowd marveled: Matthew 9:33.
3. Demons at Gadara entered swine. What disease could do that? Matthew 8:31-32.

HUMOR

An elderly lady went to a tombstone-cutter's office to order a stone for her husband's grave.

After explaining that all she wanted was a small one with no frills, she told him to put the words "To My Husband" in a suitable place. When the stone was delivered, she saw to her horror the inscription: "To My Husband—In a Suitable Place."

Drink water from your own cistern, flowing water from your own well. Should your springs be scattered abroad, streams of water in the streets? Let them be for yourself alone, and not for strangers with you.
