

FORMER SATANIST CONFESSES CHRIST

by Mark Mason

DAY 1: Northwest Reception Center – Annex Unit:

May 2015

After sharing the gospel using passages from Romans, I gave an invitation to respond to God's offer of salvation. At least two dozen of the 120 or so inmates lifted both hands in surrender. One of those men was seated along the side of the pews in a wheelchair. As the service ended, I was walking down the aisle when he grabbed my arm and pulled me down to talk in my ear:

"Thank you for making that clearer than I've ever heard it put. Now, I understand what Christ did. I've been in prison for 39 years. I've doubted God all my life. I was a hardcore biker and a Satanist. I actually helped Anton LaVey start the Church of Satan in Orlando, Florida. I never really understood what Jesus did, but tonight it hit me while you were talking. Now, I get it!"

Friends, all we can do is scatter the seeds of the gospel and water them with prayer. The rest is up to the Holy Spirit. Thank you for putting us in the gap for these men and praying that God opens the eyes of the blind!
