“The Unseen Sovereign”

Esther Part II (chapters 3-4)

1. Our failure to obey God always comes at a cost, and it's always more costly than we imagine. (I Samuel 15:9)
2. It's often in the most challenging of circumstances that God gives us the greatest opportunities to see Him at work.
3. Real faith enables us to hold fast to the faithfulness of God even when all hope seems lost. (Hebrews 11:1, 10:23)
4. Our confidence in the sovereignty of God doesn't diminish our responsibility to do what is right.
5. Genuine faith always involves risks and requires us to trust God no matter the outcomes.
