

“Malachi Part 4”
Malachi 3:13 – 4:6

1. The question of God’s justice calls into question to _____, the _____, and the reality of God’s _____.

2. The _____ in God’s judgement is _____ of His goodness, not a _____ of His justice. (II Peter 3:9, Malachi 3:6)

3. When the day of judgment comes, there will be no mistaking the _____ of God, nor His _____. (Malachi 3:16 – 4:3)

4. Our longing for God’s _____ on _____ should be accompanied by _____ and tremendous _____ for His _____.
(Romans 3:23, 6:23, Titus 3:5, Ephesians 2:8-9)

Concluding Reminders:

“Malachi Part 4”
Malachi 3:13 – 4:6

1. The question of God’s justice calls into question to goodness, the power, and the reality of God’s existence.
2. The delay in God’s judgement is evidence of His goodness, not a failure of His justice.
(II Peter 3:9, Malachi 3:6)
3. When the day of judgment comes, there will be no mistaking the justice of God, nor His mercy. (Malachi 3:16 – 4:3)
4. Our longing for God’s judgment on sin should be accompanied by humility and tremendous gratitude for His mercy. (Romans 3:23, 6:23, Titus 3:5, Ephesians 2:8-9)
