

Dylan Reese serves as the Minister of Worship at Westbury Baptist Church in Houston, TX. He is committed to intergenerational worship that is theologically sound. He cares deeply about the arts, loves to lead, and loves Jesus! Dylan has served at Westbury since 2020. He previously served at First Baptist of Mabank, TX, and many churches in the Waco, TX area. Each summer, Dylan also serves as a clinician/coach for Worship Lab, a worship camp for high schoolers held at Baylor University.

Dylan grew up in El Paso, where he was heavily involved in the ministries of First Baptist. He met Bethany in a music class at Baylor University. They have been married for 11 years and have two boys. Bethany is very involved in worship ministry. She is an Elementary music teacher and an extraordinary violinist.

Dylan holds an M.Div. from Truett Seminary (2017) and a B.M. in Church Music from Baylor University (2014). When he's not serving at church, he's hanging out with his kids or watching Baylor football.

