Daily Confessions

Monday

I ascend above the noise of this world. I rise into heavenly places, where clarity, strategy, and wisdom are my portion. I do not dwell in confusion—I dwell in communion. (Eph. 2:6)

Tuesday

Today, I ascend into purpose. I will not live beneath my call. I go higher in obedience, deeper in understanding, and forward in divine momentum. (Rev. 4:1)

Wednesday

I ascend in power and dominion. My authority in Christ is increasing. I trample every serpent of delay, defeat, and distraction under my feet. (Psa. 8:6)

Thursday

I ascend in revelation. Heaven is open to me. I see what others cannot see, and I hear what others ignore. The mysteries of God are being made known to me. (Prov. 25:2)

Friday

I ascend with clean hands and a pure heart. I will not climb dirty. I will not ascend falsely. I am consecrated, yielded, and holy. (Psa. 24:3-4)

Saturday

I ascend out of every low place. Depression, stagnation, and small thinking have no hold on me. I rise in faith, vision, and fire. (Isa. 60:1)

Sunday

I ascend into alignment. My steps are ordered. My life is synchronized with heaven. I am where I'm called to be, doing what I'm called to do, with boldness and precision. (Psa. 37:23)

Inspired by Kenneth Copeland's "Faith to Faith".

ASCEND: THE MANDATE TO RISE WITH FIRE

BY PROPHETESS TARYN BISHOP

When God spoke the word ASCEND to my spirit, it wasn't gentle—it was fire. It came with weight, with urgency, with heaven's thunder behind it. I didn't ask for it. I didn't plan for it. But I knew instantly: this wasn't about a moment—it was about a mandate. The Lord was calling His people out of low places, out of delay, out of cycles, and into divine alignment. And I said yes. I said yes to the weight, yes to the cost, yes to the fire—because I knew this generation couldn't afford for me to stay silent.

When I release the word of the Lord at ASCEND, I don't come to inspire—I come to ignite. I come to uproot every lie the enemy planted and break the chains that have kept God's people bound for too long. I've seen fear shatter, identities restored, mantles released, and boldness awaken in rooms that were once heavy with spiritual warfare. I speak what heaven says, and heaven backs it up with power. Because when God says ascend, He means move now. No more delay. No more excuses. No more hiding.

This assignment is heavy, but it's holy. Every time I minister under the banner of ASCEND, I feel the oil increase. I feel angels on assignment. I feel destinies shift in real time. I don't take it lightly. I labor in the spirit, I war in prayer, and I posture myself before God, because I know what's being birthed in these moments isn't temporary—it's eternal. People leave ASCEND with clarity, with blueprints, with fire in their bones and fresh wind behind their yes. That's what this movement carries.

If you've felt the pull—if your spirit has been stirred—this is your confirmation: God is calling you to ascend. Not tomorrow. Not when it's convenient. Now. The realm is open, the invitation has been sent, and your name is on it. This is the hour to rise with fire, take your place, and move like one who knows who they are. It's time. ASCEND.
