

Circle 1

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at the Church in Laffitte Parlor, Jackson Hall

A small, fun-loving group of seniors. They sometimes go out to lunch together after their meeting to enjoy fellowship. Their project is The Cooperative Ministry.

Circle 2

Monday, 10:00 a.m. at Homes of Members

This large group of ladies is generally from downtown Columbia. They are empty nesters with growing numbers of grandchildren. They prepare home-cooked meals for the church's monthly college lunches.

Circle 3

Monday, 10:00 a.m., at the Church in Laffitte Parlor, Jackson Hall

These ladies are mostly retired seniors. They thrive on praying for their missionaries and for one another. This group supports Lifeline Children's Services.

Circle 4

Thursday, 6:30 p.m., at the Church - WOC Room (The Bridge 201)

These ladies are women of all ages who enjoy fellowship before or after their meeting. Their project is working with the Oliver Gospel Mission in Columbia.

Circle 5

Monday, 5:30 p.m., at the Church - WOC Room (The Bridge 201)

A small group of ladies of all ages. Their project is Daybreak Ministries, a Gospel ministry for those facing unplanned pregnancies. They endeavor to show the love of Christ to all who come for services.

Circle 6

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at Homes of Members

This is a couple dozen "seasoned saints" who pray for and encourage each other. The circle project is Young Life. They also support the nursing program at the Christian Hospital in Sahiwal, Pakistan.

Circle 7

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at the Church in the Wardlaw Vestibule

This Circle is traditionally for young mothers, with nursery and preschool childcare available. The Circle project is Young Lives an outreach of Young Life for expectant and parenting adolescents.

Circle 8

Wednesday, 10:15 a.m., at the Church in Laffitte Parlor, Jackson Hall (with Zoom option)

Circle 8 members range in age from the mid-fifties to the mid-nineties. Their visitation committee includes two honorary member therapy dogs. Their project is Harvest Hope Food Bank.

Circle 9

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at Daybreak Ministries

Meets at Daybreak Ministries, a Gospel ministry serving those facing unplanned pregnancies. The Circle welcomes ladies of all ages who are interested in supporting the many services provided.

Circle 10

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., in the WOC Room (The Bridge 201)

Circle 10 is the Heart and Hand Circle. Ladies in this circle make Pressure Point Pillows to give to anyone who could derive comfort from them following surgery, hospitalization, cancer treatment, or isolation.

Circle 11

Tuesday, 12:00 p.m., Small Dining Room in Jackson Hall

Circle 11 is the Lunch Fellowship circle. The church kitchen provides the lunch, and members pay $7 for their meals. The circle's project is Ministry of Outreach to Slavic Tribes. The circle provides prayers, financial assistance, and supplies for this ministry.

Circle 12

Tuesday, 6:00 p.m., at the Church in the WOC Room (The Bridge 201)

Circle 12 is the Evening Fellowship and is a growing group of ladies. The group enjoys fellowship prior to Bible study and prayer. Circle projects are Camp Joy and making desserts for the College Lunch Ministry.

Circle 13

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at Homes of Members

Circle 13 meets in the Irmo area. Members range from age 50-70, but the group welcomes younger members, as well. Lunch is served at the end of each meeting. The group's project is gift bags for A Moment of Hope Ministries.

Circle 14

Monday, 10:00 a.m., at Homes of Members

Circle 14 meets in homes throughout Northeast Columbia and Blythewood. Members range in age from thirty-something to granny-something. The circle's project is Child Evangelism Fellowship.

Circle 15

Monday, 10:00 a.m., at Laurel Crest Living Room

Circle 15 is our Laurel Crest circle. Most of the members are Laurel Crest residents, but others are welcome. The circle project is helping to support the Laurel Crest Employee Fund.

Circle 16

Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at Lisa Beerman's Home

This Circle in the Lexington area, Welcomes ladies of all ages. Their project supports A Moment of Hope which trains and mobilizes volunteers who minister at the Columbia abortion clinic.

Circle 17

Friday, 11:00 a.m., at Still Hopes - Keenan Center Room 3

Circle 17 is our Still Hopes Circle. Circle 17 meets at Still Hopes and most of the members are Still Hopes Residents, but others are welcome. The Circle project is to support the Still Hopes Ladies Ministry.

Circle 18

Monday, 11:30 a.m., in WOC Room (The Bridge 201)

Circle 18 is for women in their thirties, forties, and fifties who are looking for fellowship with ladies who love the Lord. The Circle project is making new Christmas bows used throughout the Church campus during the Holidays.