Church at the Crossing family,

As we come to the end of this year, we find ourselves overwhelmed with gratitude.

There's something powerful about slowing down long enough to look back, not just at what was accomplished, but at what God carried us through. This past year has been filled with moments we never want to forget. Moments of celebration. Moments of stretching. Moments where grace met us right where we were.

Scripture reminds us,

"The end of a matter is better than its beginning."

ECCLESIASTES 7:8 (NIV)

This verse feels especially true as we reflect on the season behind us. Not because every moment was easy, but because God was faithful in every moment. We have watched Him move in ways both visible and quiet. We have seen Him change hearts, restore hope, strengthen faith, and draw people closer to Himself.

What we celebrate in these pages goes far beyond numbers and milestones. We celebrate stories. Lives changed. Steps of obedience taken when the outcome wasn't certain. Acts of generosity that came from sacrificial hearts. Volunteers who showed up week after week. Leaders who carried weight with humility. Families who found belonging. People who encountered Jesus and said yes to what He was doing in their lives.

We are deeply thankful for you.

Thank you for trusting us with your time, your prayers, your generosity, and your hearts. Thank you for being a church that believes God is still moving, still speaking, still transforming lives. This year has reminded us again that Church at the Crossing is not built on programs, performance or perfection. It is built on people who are willing to participate in moments of grace.

As we close this year, we are also looking ahead with faith and expectation. Each year, we share a word with our staff. It's a word we believe the Lord is placing before us to shape our posture and our purpose. This year, that word is Resolved.

Resolved doesn't mean that we have it all together. It simply means firmly determined to do something.

We are resolved to remain faithful, resolved to stay obedient, and resolved to hold tightly to what matters most and refusing to be distracted by what doesn't.

We are committed to ending this year well, and to stepping into the next season with clarity, courage, and confidence in God's leading.

This annual report is a snapshot of a year well lived. It tells the story of a church that is growing, not just in size, but in depth. We are a church that is learning to finish well so that we can begin again with wisdom and trust.

We believe with all our hearts that the best is still ahead! It's not because of our strength, but because of God's goodness. If this year has taught us anything, it's that God is not finished, and neither are we.

Thank you for walking this journey with us. Thank you for loving this church. Thank you for being part of what God is doing here.

With grateful hearts and great expectation,

John & Brandy Dowley
