For further personal reflection and application

1) After hearing about the odds stacked against the Church in Philadelphia; reflect on what seemed like an impossible situation in your life.

In hindsight, can you see ways God was guiding and carrying you through that difficult season? If so, in what ways?

2) How can remembering God’s faithfulness in the past give you eyes to see Him work in the present?

3) If you are facing a challenging situation right now, write out some practical ways God could use it as an opportunity for ministry and to grow your faith.
