

SUMMER AT REACH

Best Summer
Ever!

God's Greatest Summer

God's always speaking—are you close enough to hear?

John 10:27 ESV

"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them,
and they follow me."

Discussion Questions For Groups

THRIVE Spiritually

- What does it mean to you personally that you are God's greatest "summer"?
- In what ways has your relationship with God matured or stagnated recently?
- How can you practice spiritual boldness in approaching God daily?

THRIVE Relationally

- How does recognizing Christ in others change the way you treat them?
- What are some ways your faith can help heal relational walls or divisions in your life?
- How can you invite others into the kind of relationship with God you've experienced?

THRIVE Missionally

- What "interferences" might be keeping you from hearing God's voice clearly?
- How can you live in such a way that others see the light of Christ in you?
- What's one practical step you can take this week to act on what God is speaking to you?

Questions for Parents

- For Kids: Who do you talk to the most in your day? Did you know God wants to be part of your day too?
- For Teens: What voice is loudest in your life—friends, media, or God? Why does it matter?
- Family Activity: Turn off devices during dinner and share one way each person can spend time with God this week.

Gods Greatest Summer

This sermon powerfully reminded us that God's greatest joy is a thriving relationship with His people. From the beginning, His plan was to remove every barrier—cultural, spiritual, and physical—that separated us from Him. Through Christ's sacrifice, we no longer live as strangers or outsiders, but as beloved sons and daughters with full access to God's presence.

The message challenged us to grow up in our faith—moving from spiritual infancy to maturity. It's not about earning God's love or performing religious duties, but about spending real time with our Father, knowing His voice, and responding with bold faith. Just as a good parent longs to walk with their children through every season, so God desires an ongoing, daily, and deepening connection with us.

Our boldness in prayer, our clarity in hearing God's voice, and our transformation in daily life all flow from this relationship. This is God's "greatest summer"—you, His child, living fully in His love and purpose.

Pastoral Care

We have a pastoral care team at church to walk alongside people through life's challenges, with their permission. Should anyone in your group or serve team experience sickness, death of a loved one, marriage challenges, or surgeries, please contact us: care@reachchurchnetwork.org
