SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE
November 23, 2025 | 10:30AM

W E L C O M E T O N E W H O P E !

We are so glad you found your way here today. To our members and returning visitors, welcome back! To those of you who are new, welcome! There are a couple of things you might like to know.

First, New Hope Presbyterian is a Bible-believing congregation seeking to worship and serve God in response to the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Second, we believe gathered worship is the central event in the church's life together: it restores and shapes our whole lives in the pattern of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We also recognize that for some of you this is the first time (or the first time in a long time) in a more structured service of worship that calls for you to participate so actively. Relax! Everything you need is both printed in the Worship Guide you are holding and up on the screen. We encourage you to turn off the auto-pilot and join us in vibrantly and enthusiastically praising God, confessing, singing, and hearing the Scriptures. Worship is for all of God's people. Enjoy the service!

PRELUDE: Blest Be the Tie that Binds/Savior, like a Shepherd Lead Us

John Fawcett, DENNIS, Hans G. Nageli, arr. Lee Holdridge

*Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.*

*Savior, like a Shepherd lead us, much we need Thy tender care.
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us, for our use Thy folds prepare.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus, Thou has bought us, Thine we are.*

*We are Thine, do Thou befriend us, be the guardian of our way.
Keep Thy flock from sin, defend us, seek us when we go astray.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus, Thou has bought us, Thine we are.*

CALL TO WORSHIP: Psalm 95:1-6

¹ Oh come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

² Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! ³ For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. ⁴ In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also. ⁵ The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

⁶ Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

Now Thank We All Our God

Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name. 1 Chron. 29:13

My Heart Is Filled with Thankfulness

1. My heart is filled with thank-ful-ness to Him who bore my pain; Who floods my weak-ness-es with strength and caus-es fears to fly. Whose wis-dom is my per-fect peace, whose ev-'ry thought is love. For crushed my curse of sin-ful-ness and clothe me with His light and ev-'ry prom-ise is e-nough for ev-'ry step I take. Sus-ev-'ry day I have on earth is giv-en by the King. So wrote His law of right-eous-ness with pow'r u-pon my heart.

tain-ing me with arms of love and crown-ing me with grace.
I will give my life, my all, to love and fol-low Him.

"A Sovereign God Who Calls His People To Pray" (2 Kings 20)

Prior to last week's sermon, Senior Pastor Richard Burguet asked what life would be like if we belonged to a family that never communicated, when we spend so much time on our cell phones texting and responding to many persons we don't even know? Yet how often do we communicate with God, offering up admonition, confession, thanksgiving, supplication, lament and praise as Jesus did in Mark 1:35, Luke 5:16, and Luke 6:12? A sovereign God provoked his people to pray (James 1:2-4) by having the prophet Isaiah tell Hezekiah he would not live and to put his house in order. When Hezekiah prayed as his father David did (Psalms 7:3-5; 17:1-5; 18:20-26; 26:1-7; 44:17-22) and asked God for help, God listened to all the good Hezekiah had done and promised to heal him and prolong his life by 15 years. God is always present in every aspect of our lives. Our prayers matter to him who hears when his people cry out, and responds as he sees fit, knowing what's best for us. Sometimes his compassion comes packaged in hard times, which he does for the sake of redeeming us. We need to trust whatever he brings into our lives. Yet Hezekiah's heart is divided (vv. 12-19; Isaiah 38, 39). He walked by faith and trusted God, but also walked by sight, allowing his pride and prosperity to cloud his thinking without giving praise to God his provider. After Hezekiah showed off all his wealth to the ambassadors from Babylon, God told him Babylon will eventually take it all away from him. This teaches us all that humility is our best friend and pride our greatest enemy. Hezekiah's reign ended with a thud because he forgot his ultimate restoration comes only from God. Let's remember the ultimate restoration is coming. Be steadfast. We all need to place our trust in Jesus, our one and only king, Lord, and Savior.
