105 Your word is a lamp to guide my feet
and a light for my path.

106 I've promised it once, and I'll promise it again:
I will obey your righteous regulations.

107 I have suffered much, O Lord;
restore my life again as you promised.

108 Lord, accept my offering of praise,
and teach me your regulations.

109 My life constantly hangs in the balance,
but I will not stop obeying your instructions.

110 The wicked have set their traps for me,
but I will not turn from your commandments.

111 Your laws are my treasure;
they are my heart's delight.

112 I am determined to keep your decrees to the very end. Psalm 119:105-112

DIG IN & DISCUSS

According to Psalm 119:105-112, what role does the Bible play in the life of a believer?

- How does it light our path?
- How does it restore us?
- How does it teach us?
- How does it protect us?

Does our live really hang in the balance when it comes to obeying His instructions? If so, why do we struggle to get to know and obey His commands?

What is your most used excuse for not reading the Bible daily?

What are some everyday ways that you can incorporate Scripture reading into your routine? [If you are a regular reader of God's Word, share how it works with you. When do you do it? What tools do you use?]

Read 1 Timothy 3:16-17. What changes should we expect to see as we live daily devoted to God's Word?

What are some things (truths) that you have learned (teaching and training) you from God's Word recently?

What is your plan for reading and studying the Bible so that you can be “thoroughly equipped for every good work?”

NEXT LEVEL QUESTIONS

Use these questions to customize or deepen your discussions.

What is the origin of the Bible according to 2 Timothy 3:16?

How did God communicate the Bible to people based on 2 Peter 1:21?

Inspiration = God breathed

The inspiration of the Bible means that God the Holy Spirit carried the human authors so that using their vocabularies and writing style they wrote God’s Word perfectly with no errors.

Where have you felt that God was using the Bible to rebuke or correct you? Did you accept or ignore God’s rebuke or correction?

Read James 1:23-25. Why is a regular time (a daily quiet time) in God’s Word important?

Read Psalm 16:11. How is a daily quiet time not just about reading the Bible, but more about getting in the presence of God?
