Year Seven of serving in Japan

Greetings again, October had passed, and we are in November.

Last month, we had a conference gathering, celebrating the churches in Japan. We had pastors from Nago, Tokyo, Kagoshima, and Higashimatsushima visited us. The Robb family were able to come, with young Ethan and Emily. Emily was able to be mobile by using her wheelchair. Both of the kids expressed much joy in seeing me again, and I was filled with joy in seeing them grow.

Right now, the weather is changing. It finally started to get cold, but there were several days of hot humidity, due to the typhoon passing through.

The students returned from their mission trip to Taiwan and were blessed by the trip. Unfortunately, many of them got sick on the flight back. Praise the Lord that they all recovered after rest and nutrition.

I was able to stay on top on my studies and class materials this semester. With the end so near, I am working on the final exam. Thanksgiving is just around the corner and we will have a giant feast at the church.

Recently, I was asked to join a ministry for kids. We hosted the Gospel Gamer, where every Sunday night, we play different games, teach the Bible, and implement the teachings in the Bible. There is actually a giant gaming event happening in early next year, and we will be playing and witnessing to many Japanese kids and youths there.

I am grateful for those who continue to support and pray over the ministry in Japan, reaching out to the people here, as well as raising up young aspiring believers in the Word. Prayer Requests-

I have started writing to different churches back in the States for connection and prayers. Some responded, but I am hoping to make a connection with these churches and invite them to pray over Japan and the ministries and churches here. Perhaps invite a mission team to come.

There is a month left of school, so, the pressure is getting tighter and tighter. I pray for the students to do well and finish strong, and carry the love of Jesus for everyone.

Pray for visions. I feel like God has brought some things to my attention, and it makes me wonder what He wants to me to do with it. I pray for clarity on His vision and plans, and that He would use me for His glory.

Pray for the families in Japan. For the families in Sendai region, Okinawa region, Kagoshima region, and many more. I pray that the heart of Japan will soon open up to the Gospel of Jesus.
