

God's Will to Me

1. Before you believed in God or knew about His plan, what was your desire or ambition in the world? How about now?

2. What do you think about others' ambitions and dreams? How important are these to you? Please rate from 1-5, 1 being not important at all and 5 being very important.

<input type="checkbox"/> to be a good family member	<input type="checkbox"/> to lead a decent life
<input type="checkbox"/> to be a good citizen	<input type="checkbox"/> to live a long life
<input type="checkbox"/> to be a good teacher	<input type="checkbox"/> to lead an easy life without many responsibilities
<input type="checkbox"/> to do something that I like or enjoy doing	<input type="checkbox"/> to study and learn more
<input type="checkbox"/> to be famous in some way	<input type="checkbox"/> to stay healthy and look good
<input type="checkbox"/> to be talented and be able to do something great	<input type="checkbox"/> to enjoy various entertainments
<input type="checkbox"/> to be respected and recognized in your ability	<input type="checkbox"/> to enjoy lots of good food

3. Do you know the two sentences that we used to summarise God's plan in the first stage of this movement?

4. Use emojis to indicate how you would make the decisions below:

happy choice

reasonable decision

stressed or obligated doubtful

refuse

_____	join Friday and Saturday meetings	_____	go to school
_____	sing hymns to God	_____	go to work
_____	pray for others	_____	do chores
_____	talk to new friends in Sunday 123, gospel groups or other activities	_____	give home visits
_____	partner time	_____	grocery shopping
_____	write bookmarks	_____	write journal
_____	voice out and share about yourself	_____	hang out with friends
_____	read the Bible and learn about the truth	_____	hang out with brothers & sisters
_____	perform in events	_____	practice or attend lessons

5. What do you want God's plan to be like? Do you have any suggestions or modifications to His plan?

6. What is your dream, ambition, or interest? How would you integrate it with God's plan?
