EXODUS

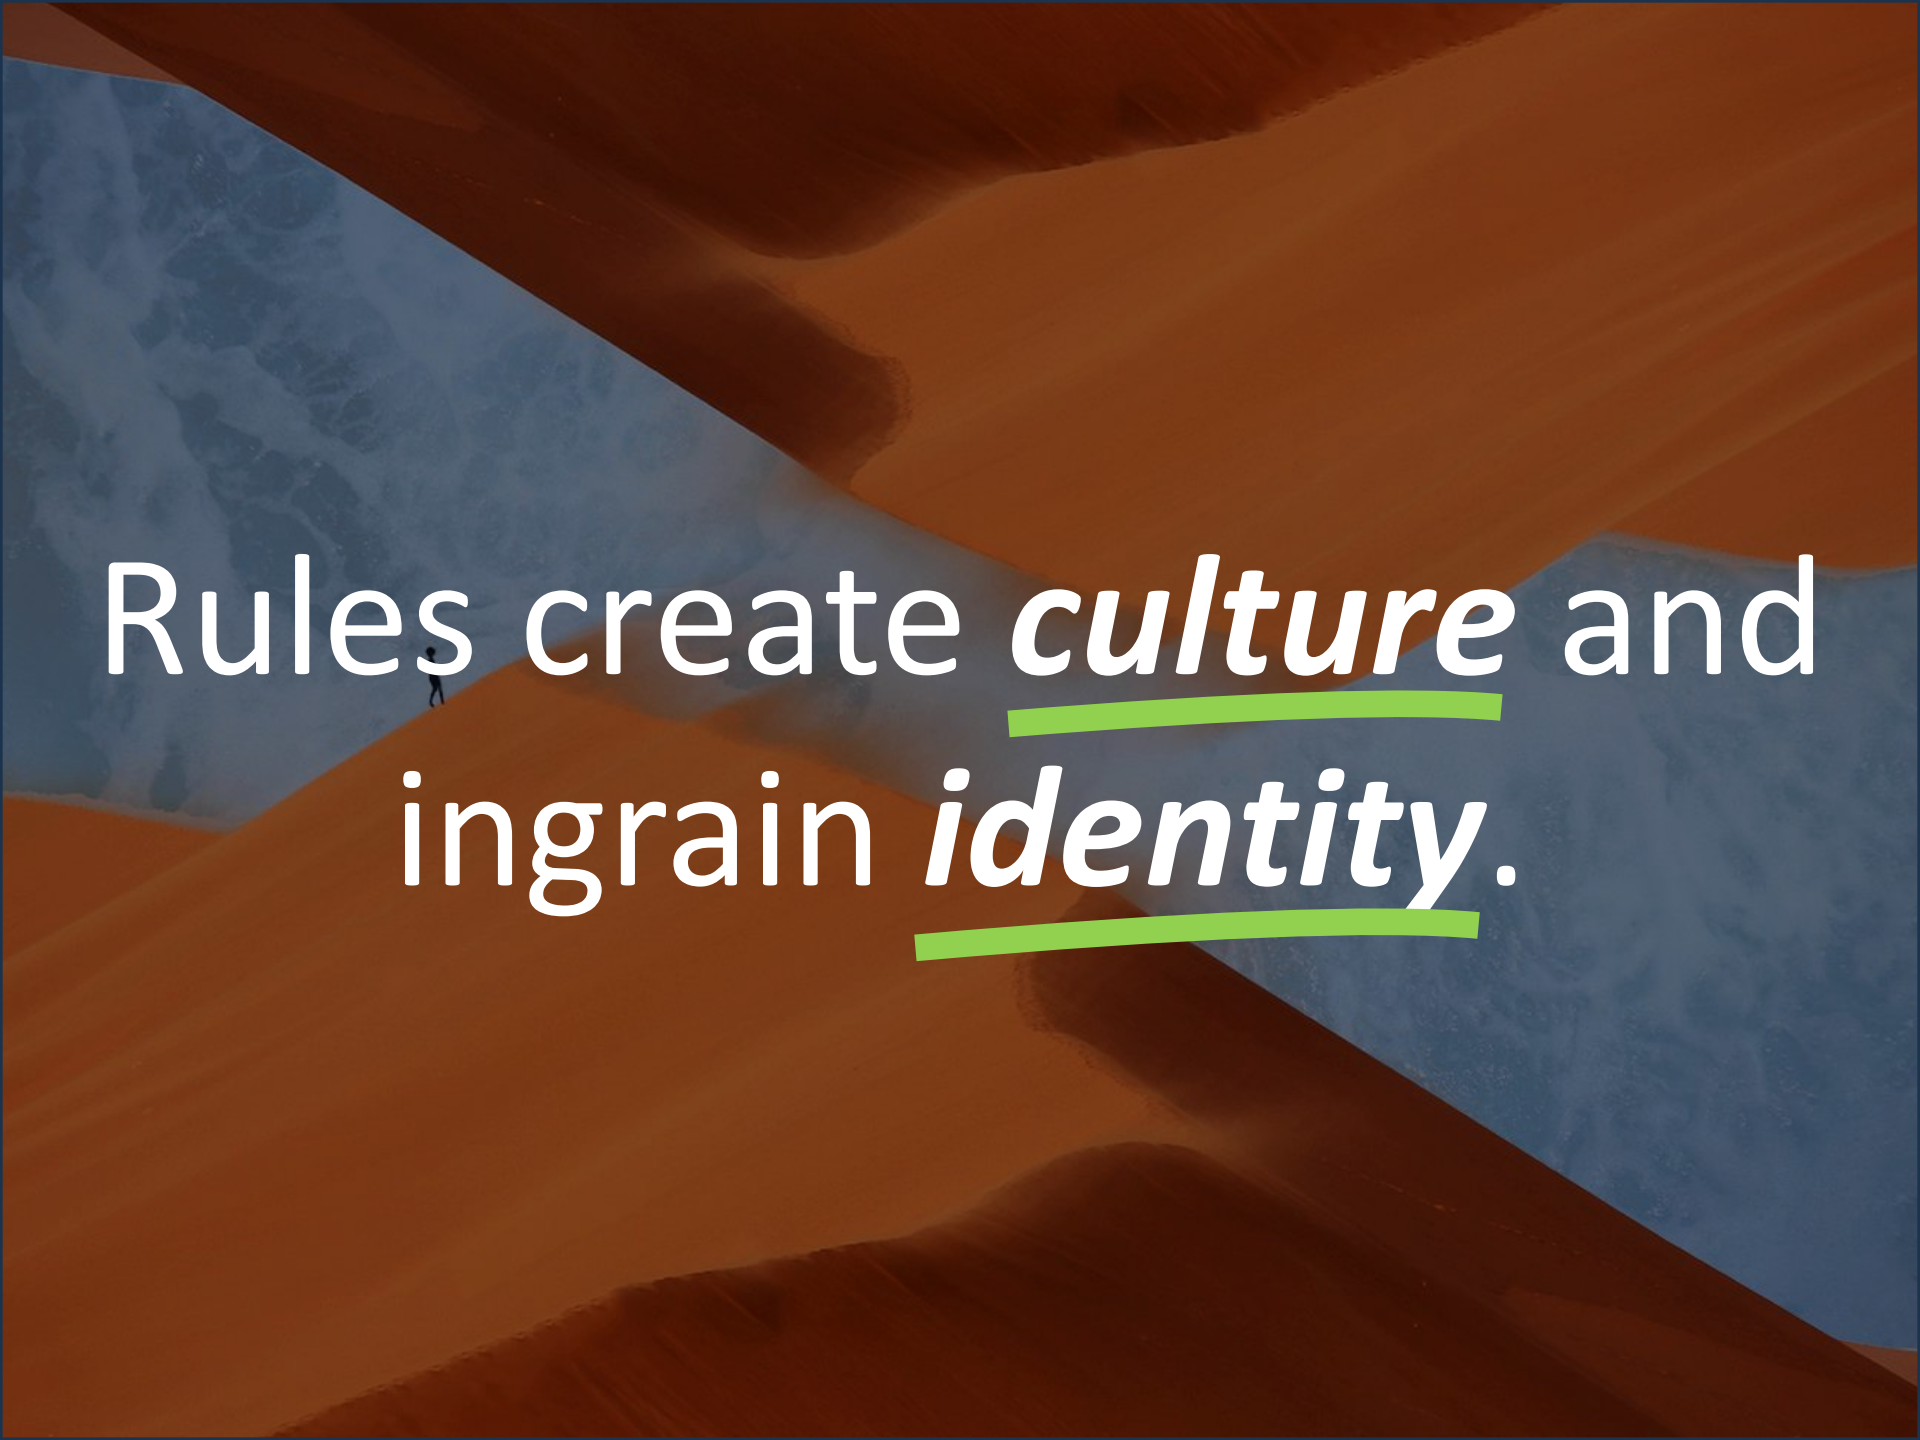

THE GOD WHO REDEEMS HIS PEOPLE

Family Rules

Rules reflect what we value.

The background is an abstract composition of large, flowing, organic shapes in shades of orange, brown, and blue. The orange and brown tones dominate the foreground and middle ground, while the blue tones are more prominent in the upper and lower right areas. A small, dark silhouette of a person is visible on a small dune or ridge on the left side of the image.

Rules create culture and ingrain identity.

The background of the slide features a stylized, abstract representation of sand dunes in shades of brown and orange. A small, dark silhouette of a person is visible on the left side, standing on a dune. The text is overlaid on this background.

How do these laws
create a unique culture
and identity in the nation of Israel?

Central Point

Our lives must be marked by a distinct and obvious
devotion to God.

The background of the slide features a photograph of rolling sand dunes in a desert, with a clear blue sky visible above. A dark, semi-transparent horizontal band is superimposed across the middle of the image, serving as a backdrop for the title text.

Exodus 22:16-31

Israel's Call for Distinct and Obvious Devotion to God

Exodus 22:16-31

The background of the slide is a photograph of sand dunes. The dunes are in shades of orange and brown, with some areas appearing darker. A small, dark silhouette of a person is standing on a ridge of a dune on the left side of the image. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. In the top left corner, there is a bright blue circle containing the white number '1'.

In What is Consumed

Exodus 22:31

The background of the slide is a photograph of sand dunes. The dunes are a warm, golden-brown color. A small, dark silhouette of a person is standing on the crest of a dune on the left side of the frame. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. The overall composition is serene and contemplative.

Distinct and Obvious Devotion to God Alone

“Consecrated”

Then I will draw near to you for judgment.

I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who thrust aside the sojourner, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:5

The background of the slide features a stylized, painterly illustration of sand dunes in shades of brown and orange. A small, dark silhouette of a person is standing on a ridge of a dune in the middle ground. The sky is a deep blue. In the top left corner, there is a bright yellow rounded rectangle containing the word 'Warning!' in black text.

Warning!

Neglecting our devotion leads to our discipline
and even destruction.

The background of the slide features a stylized, artistic depiction of sand dunes. The dunes are rendered in warm, earthy tones of brown, tan, and beige, with soft, undulating shapes. A small, dark silhouette of a person is visible standing on one of the dunes, providing a sense of scale. The overall composition is serene and contemplative, with the text overlaid in a clean, white font.

Our Call for Distinct and Obvious Devotion to God

Matthew 5:17-20; 1 Peter 2:12

Matthew 5:17-20

The background of the slide features a stylized, artistic representation of sand dunes. The dunes are depicted in various shades of brown and tan, with some areas appearing more textured and others smoother. A small, dark silhouette of a person is visible on the left side, standing on a dune. The overall composition is abstract and evocative, suggesting a vast, open landscape.

1 Peter 2:12

Application

How are we displaying our distinct and obvious devotion to God...personally, familially, and corporately?

Central Point

Our lives must be marked by
a distinct and obvious
devotion to God.
