

Our Literary book of faith

We pay close attention to how the passage is written. We notice what kind of literature it is. We notice all the details, themes, characters, storyline, poetry, and logic. We compare and contrast these with our understanding and experience of life. In this process we discover meaning.

Our Theological book of faith

As we open Scripture and join the conversation, we ask our deepest questions and listen for God's voice. We hear God's demands as well as God's words of comfort and promise. We see Christ alive yesterday and today. We feel the movement of the Spirit and are moved to respond. God is present in the Word.

Our Devotional book of faith

We begin. We read, ask questions, reflect on the meaning of the Bible from wherever we are – in place, time, or state of mind. No matter where we are, our Book of Faith meets us there.

Our Historical book of faith

We seek to understand the world of the Bible. We explore the world of the writers and the original readers, the rulers, slaves, women, men, and children. All the people in our Book of Faith. How do we understand their social and cultural contexts? How were their lives different from or the same as ours today?
