

Sunday Sermon Questions • 7/27/2025

Psalm 78

Legacy Builders: Who's Teaching the Next Generation?

What does it practically look like for you to be the primary faith trainer in your home or circle of influence, and what barriers have kept you from embracing that responsibility?

Spiritual Amnesia: Why Do We Forget God's Deeds?

Why do you think it's easy to forget the works of the Lord, even after experiencing His goodness, and what habits can help you remember and recount His faithfulness regularly?

Sin Management or Sin Execution

What sin in your life have you been tolerating or feeding, and what steps can you take to starve the flesh and feed the Spirit this week?

Idol Check: What's on the Throne of Your Heart?

What things – even good things – have taken a higher priority than God in your life lately, and how can you begin the process of tearing those idols down?

Faithful Leadership: How Will You Lead?

David shepherded God's people with an upright heart and skillful hand (Psalm 78:72). In your current season, how are you leading spiritually – at home, work or in church – and what would it look like to lead with both integrity and intentionality?

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, help me to see where I've forgotten Your works, tolerated sin, or placed idols above You. Teach me how to lead in my home and community with a heart that longs to glorify You. Give me the courage to be a tide changer for the next generation, starting today. Amen.